Housing Authority Plans Improvements

Plans for an extensive improvement program and possible expansion of the farm labor housing facility operated by the Belle Glade Housing Authority were announced today as early goals of the agency's governing board. Exact scheduling of the modernization project must be determined pending the completion of a feasibility study that is underway.

The announcement was made by Louis Kirkman, Chairman, who explained that the Housing Authority's plans are based upon hopes that financial problems can be overcome.

"The Housing Authority itself simply doesn't have funds enough to do more than meet current maintenance and operational costs," he said. "However, the existing housing facilities are becoming increasingly expensive to maintain because of age and this fact as well as our interest in the tenants provides strong reasons why we would like to act as soon as possible."

Among other things, the feasibility study will require an analysis of immediate needs and a determination of how pending the completion of financial problems can be overcome.

$500,000 Goal Set For June

The drive to raise over $500,000 to build a 1.2 million dollar Comprehensive Mental Health Center in Palm Beach County is progressing well according to Tom Rossin, general campaign chairman.

"To date Rossin reported, "we have raised over $140,000 toward our ultimate goal of $500,000. It is important to note, however, that time is running out. We must raise the money or have it promised before June 1, 1967, in order to remain eligible for federal matching funds.

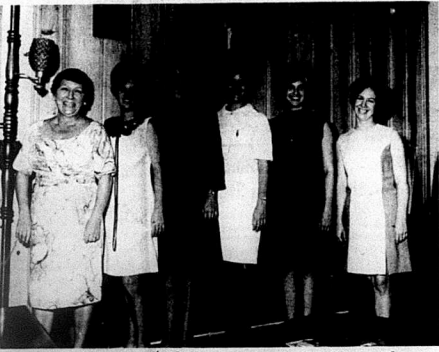

"The only way we are going to reach this goal is by soliciting the help of every Palm Beach County resident. This center means so much to us, it is vitally important that we build the center... we must realize and remember that one out of every four persons in Palm Beach County will be stricken with mental illness in 1967."

Rossin said large corporations, small business enterprises, and many other organizations and individuals capable of making sizable contributions are being contacted. The drive to raise the money began December 1, with the organization of a complete non-profit corporation which is headed by Dr. Edward Eisey, principal of Howell Watson Junior High School in Palm Beach Gardens. Several prominent professional and industry leaders are active in the drive.

Mrs. Ralph Rubinger, a long-time, ardent volunteer for the center organization, said a 15 foot high display in red and gold has been constructed and is being transported to several "traffic points" throughout Palm Beach County.

"The display has been on North Avenue and at Sears in West Palm Beach and many small contributions have been donated as a result of the display," she said. "We hope other shopping centers and large department stores will consent to us displaying the 'crusader' exhibit so that we can continue to carry our message to the people of Palm Beach County."

Mrs. Rubinger, a volunteer who maintains an office at the center headquarters, said all contributions may be sent to Comprehensive Mental Health Center, 909 Fern Street, West Palm Beach.

C of C Card Required Of Solicitors

The Chamber of Commerce reports that there have been Solicitors working in the Belle Glade area without proper approval.

The housewife or businesswoman can check their approval card issued by the City of Belle Glade. The salesman or solicitor cannot or will not present an approval card, he should be reported immediately to the Police Department.

Possession of the card does not control he business practices of solicitors but it does tell the public that the solicitor is acting in accordance with city ordinances.

The practice of reporting solicitors without the approval card can cut down on schemes operating within the city and all citizens are asked to cooperate in this joint effort of the city government and the Chamber of Commerce.

Businessmen are displaying a sign that warns "No Solicitation Without Chamber of Commerce Approval." Though the housewife cannot display these signs she can be just as effective in controlling the situation by asking to see the approval card when solicitors contact her.

Housing

much of the future farm labor housing needs for the area should be met by the Housing Authority.

Determining an adequate source of financing will be the key part of the study, according to Kirchman.

"At this point," he explained, "it appears that several federal agencies are potential sources of loans or possibly even grants. Congressman Paul Rogers is submitting a comprehensive report concerning the various federal lending programs so we can consider the technical and legal requirements. If we do not encounter obstacles of some kind, we hope to go to work on specific plans as soon as adequate financing is in sight."

The Belle Glade Housing Authority was created to enable the reopening of the farm labor center which had been built by the Federal Government during World War II and then abandoned after the war's end. Many years elapsed, however, before the local agency could obtain full control over the facility and during that period federal restrictions required that improvements be limited to maintenance of the original facilities. The Authority now has the power to carry out a renovation and expansion program if funds become available.

Thought of the Week

It never occurs to fools that merit and good fortune are closely united. Goethe.

Do We Invite Attack?

It is important that we be informed and that we be vigilant against organized attacks against our government by all who would destroy us.

To expend all our energies in fighting the enemy is to overlook the building of protective measures which will discourage attack. We should consider our own deficiencies which invite attack.

At the time of Carl Marx and Friedrich Engels the economic and social conditions were in a state of turmoil which is difficult for us to comprehend today. Carl Marx developed a theory of how this state of turmoil could and would correct itself.

Marx correctly recognized that corrective measures would come from the population of people but he was incorrect as to the procedure they would use. He failed to see the logic of a free enterprise system which would appeal to the masses.

Both Marks and Engels saw the Ford and the Rockefeller of their day but they could not see shadows and forms which in our imagination become enemies and fail to seek out the stars which can be used as guides.

It is no more necessary that we all become economists than it is for a lost person to study astrology to follow a star to safety but it is necessary for us to understand the value of having guide posts. The posts are in location—whether or not they are used as guides depends upon the perceptiveness of the individual needing them.

to enhance the importance of the worker.

Communism lacked the qualities of practical application to the extent that it could not gain a foothold in a large part of the world at a time when there was a need for leadership.

The leadership which gained recognition during the depression was that of free enterprise.

Then why are we so constantly under attack by the advocates of the communistic theory?

Part of the answer is that the theory of communism is a form of religion to those who embrace it. It is a religion which does not give consideration to self examination or to truthfulness and honesty.

A part of the answer is in the fact that we actually have pockets of oppression within our social and economic structure.

The far greater part of the answer is in the fact that we are not well informed about both the good and poor qualities of our economic-social structure as it exists and how it may be improved. Like a lost person in the woods, we see shadows and forms which in our imagination become enemies and fail to seek out the stars which can be used as guides.

It is no more necessary that we all become economists than it is for a lost person to study astrology to follow a star to safety but it is necessary for us to understand the value of having guide posts. The posts are in location—whether or not they are used as guides depends upon the perceptiveness of the individual needing them.

Uncle Dan From Doolie Says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The letters at the country store Saturday night was general agreed we wasn't making no headway in cutting down on the overhead in Washington.

Zeke Grubb said he could recollect when President Johnson first took over, one of the first things he done was start turning out the lights at the White House and calling for a "economy drive." Zeke was of the opinion that turning out the lights was about as far as we had got on this project.

Ed Doolie, who runs a newspaper clipping that reported we had added 230,870 civilian workers to the Government payroll between the end of the fiscal year 1965 and 1966, and that we now got 275,811 of them workers. He told the fellows it might be better for the country if Lyndon would get his ass back on at the White House.

Bug Hookum claimed a heap of them new workers was hired to do conduct studies and surveys of this and that and none of them was worth a dime to the taxpayer. For instance, he reported he had saw last week where the U. S. Public Health Service was conducting a study on how folks drove a automobile. It cost $128,855 and they come to the conclusion if a driver stopped suddenly in traffic he was more likely to get hit from behind than from the front.

I reckon, Mister Editor, you would have to say the taxpayer got hit from behind with that one.

Mrs. Alexander To Address Citizens Group

"A ride through Progressive Park where 85 percent of the home owners were at one time in the Miami Stream, and 15 percent is in the stream, will vindicate our objectives. We also invite you to visit with any one of the home owners."

"Our Educational Program does not end with the sale of a home. We make it a point to have an Inspection Program which comes in February where three prizes are given to the three best Homemakers with children and the three Homemakers without children.

The President W. L. Cunningham of the Everglades Progressive Citizens Programs has been addressed by some of our most outstanding leaders whose philosophy is compatible with ours."

"The Unemployed Saint" Final Production At Playhouse

The tenth and final production at Frank J. Hale's Royal Poinciana Playhouse will be a David Merrick production, "The Unemployed Saint," which, after Palm Beach, has a tryout in Philadelphia, will move directly to Broadway for an early April opening at the premises in Palm Beach on March 20th, and plays through March 25th.

The comedy, written by Bill Manhoff, stars Shelley Berman, Dorothy Loudon and Jackie Vernon. All three stars are famous comic night club personalities who are fast making their imprint upon the legitimate stage. Mr. Vernon, in fact, turned down a $25,000 night club offer to make his Royal Poinciana Playhouse stage debut.

The comedy will be accepted by such diverse talents as Joe Bosca last seen in Palm Beach in the Man With the Perfect Wife, Lee Lason and several others such as a touring Russian violinist, Arthur Storch, famed Broadway director, is reading the company for Palm Beach, a Broadway producer in Philadelphia under Theatre Guild subscription and the New York opening. The plot revolves a village around a Greenwade Village artist (Mr. Berman) who tries to live a saintly life.

For a long time movies have had direct influence on viewers' lives. Some of the most popular movies of today are about the life of a humorist, one take-off on Bond, "Agent-007-Lovest," was done by Randy Lusk.

An old and very well-known novel and movie is "GONE WITH THE WIND," "Don't Worry, Be Happy," "O'Hara before and after the War Between the States in a dramatic interpretation."

ALICE IN WONDERLAND is usually thought of as a children's story, but it really contains a deeper, more adult meaning. Marilyn Stokes and Patty Stevenson initiated Alice and Mock Turtle and Alice and the Gryphon.

FOCK High

The fishing was good with visitors pulling in good ones this week.

Bill Fisher of Cash, Ark., caught an eight pound, 12 inch, Tuesday. This is the second eight pound he has caught in the month he has spent fishing here.

Fisher caught his bass on a gold Johnson spoon with a yellow skirt in the Pelican Bay area.

Some of the Braves, down from Atlanta, had a good weekend. Marion Johnson, Lee Walburn, Whitlow Wyatt, pitching coach, and Clint Court, Jr., another coach, caught 9 bass up to five pounds.

Two seven and a quarter pound bass were landed by Mr. Sweet of Utica, N. Y., and Rev. J. C. Walters, First Baptist Church of Lake Harbor.

Three, Charles Storch, Canon and James Henry Brown all of Belle Glade, caught 108 speck fish on Thursday.

The beautiful weather made fishing excellent in the Belle Glade area of Lake Okechobee over the past few days. Bass and speck fish were hitting real well, with all the speck fishermen bringing in in an unsuitably environment, and his wife (Miss Loudon) who is torn between her long-term marriage to a chabatisen owner (M. Vernon) down stairs.

BGHS Complete In Speech Contest

The annual county-wide speech contest was held at Palm Beach Junior College on February 9-10.

Students from BGHS competed in both the oral interpretation, humorous and dramatic and the poetry readings. There was one original interpretation which was written and presented by Linda Hood. It was a humorous interpretation of "My Dog, Ellen."

A very controversial oral on child psychology for many years has been Dr. Sigmund Freud's writings for children contain many basic ideas which can be turned into a humorous interpretation or interesting to his stories. "Gertrude McFuzz," Diane Sheehan's humorous interpretation of "The Ugly Duckling" was a very popular oral. Cynthia Thebaud read an excellent oral on TOM SAWYER, for her humorous interpretation.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND is usually thought of as a children's story, but it really contains a deeper, more adult meaning. Marilyn Stokes and Patty Stevenson initiated Alice and Mock Turtle and Alice and the Gryphon.

Bryant Price used a good story to tell his dramatic interpretation. Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" was a source of much varied information. Barbara Dexter gave a dramatic interpretation. "Run Away, Little Girl," on an article about a handicapped child that learned to be normal.

Five Belle Glade contestants participated in the poetry readings. Their selections were on varied topics.

Diane Sheehan — "Children in the Woods," "Maud Multer."

Marilyn Stokes — "Ballad of Hell"

Randy Lusk — "A series of poems on 'Love'"

Bryant Price — "Selections from Oglethorpe"

Mrs. Joan Lannier, speech teacher at the county, held a series of classes to attend practice tournaments next fall which will be held throughout the county. These classes were held by the participants of the contest. The classes will work with extemporaneous speeches based on current events.

A Continuing Menace

Even as virtual civil wars rage in Red China, liberals in the United States are calling for a relaxation of military pressure against Asian communism and are urging that the U. S. grab at any straws to obtain "peace" in Viet Nam. It is a peculiar situation.

Ideological as their arguments are, the substance of the liberal appears' current position is that communism no longer constitutes a menace. They assert that the U. S. has most to gain from a "hands off policy." This attitude is reminiscent of the argument of 15 years ago that America should "let the dust settle" in Asia. The liberals were wrong at the time of the Korean War; they are equally wrong today in their assessment of the realities of communism. They have been so that they can knock them down.

Now it's true that communism is different today in respects from what it was a decade or more ago. This is only natural as time affects everything in life. But the changes in the communist countries don't mean that communism is any less dangerous. On the contrary, the communist threat must increase sharply in the next year.

A fragmented Red China is in the interest of the free capitalist world. If the Chinese colossus can be splintered, the U. S. will have more options for dealing with Chinese revolutionary attacks against the free peoples. But not even upheaval in Peking can eliminate one of the gravest sources of danger to the United States: Red China's growing nuclear arsenal. The Red Guards may be causing turmoil throughout mainland China, yet production of Chinese atomic bombs continues unhindered. Whatever faction in Red China finally wins out, it will have access to the atomic weapons now being built by Chinese scientists.

Even if the problem of China's communism were to disappear overnight, this would not remove the danger of the Soviet Union. Indeed it should be recognized that any weakening of the communist danger would produce a fresh wave of aggressive actions and subversive warfare from Moscow. If the Russians have been somewhat inhibited in the last few years, it has been because they had to concentrate their attention on their Asian frontiers.

The Soviets talk of "peace" but they still think of "peace" in terms of a Russian Communist victory. They are pushing as hard as ever to reverse the NATO alliance in Europe. Russian agents are stirring revolutionary currents in Spain, which Stalin attempted to capture in the 1930s. The Russians are eager to have a decade or more of the consular and space treaties. The former would facilitate the changes in the communist in the U. S. The space treaties regard as an opportunity to block West Germany's technical gains in space technology, thereby costing the West a major advantage. The Russians also rely on strict observance of the space treaty by the U. S., while they secretly conduct space tests of anti-ballistic missiles and other advanced weapons.

Russia continues to push hard to acquire a bridgehead in the Middle East for a deep penetration of East, central and southern Asia. The space treaties regard as an opportunity to block West Germany's technical gains in space technology, thereby costing the West a major advantage. The Russians also rely on strict observance of the space treaty by the U. S., while they secretly conduct space tests of anti-ballistic missiles and other advanced weapons.

It is very likely that the turmoil in Peking will soon be reflected in the Communist movement in the United States, with a hard-line Moscow element reasserting itself. One can truly say to conduct studies and surveys of this and that and none of them was worth a dime to the taxpayer. For instance, he reported he had saw last week where the U. S. Public Health Service was conducting a study on how folks drove a automobile. It cost $128,855 and they come to the conclusion if a driver stopped suddenly in traffic he was more likely to get hit from behind than from the front.

Work And Aims Of Victory Noll Sisters

The Victory Noll Sisters, a Roman Catholic Community group devoted to the religious education of both public school children and adults announced that it is inaugurating a program of experimentation. For a period of eight months, selected groups of sisters will wear varied styles of more contemporary dress in their homes and at their work. Three of the Victory Noll sisters, now living in Belle Glade will be participating in the experiment. The Sisters who reside at 708 South Main St., will welcome candid and constructive comments on their program of experimentation.

Kill this pellitory weed in sugar cane.

Use Atrazine. Here's how:

When you see pellitory weed starting to grow, apply Atrazine 80W herbicide plus a little surfactant. You'll clean out infestations of this winter annual fast and effectively without hurting cane.

Atrazine is safe to sugar cane. It will not injure your crop when you apply it as directed on the label. And since it's non-volatile, there's no danger of drift to adjacent, sensitive crops.

Even though Atrazine has proved to control pellitory at any stage of growth, early treatment assures best results. With pellitory under control early, you grow more sugar cane per acre.

That's because Atrazine prevents pellitory from interfering with sugar cane tillering. Atrazine helps make soil moisture and nutrients available for your cane, and not for pellitory weed.

So plan now to grow the maximum tonnage of sugar cane from each acre you plant this season. Just use Atrazine to control pellitory weed this winter.

Contact your local supplier. Or for more information, write us.

Slave Sale Is A Success

"A smashing success" are the only words which express the great turnout for the first annual FTA Slave Sale.

Beginning Wednesday, February 15, during the break, bidding went slowly. By the last sale on Thursday, everything was caught up with excitement. Marilyn Stokes brought the high bid of $4.50 by Jack Waters.

During the first auction June Harris was bought by Carlos Vakkila, Carolyn Cleveland by Sue Sims, and Kathy Morris by Leslie Cowart. Doris Willis also sold at this time was bought by Kenny Glass. She had to do such chores as cook his breakfast early Friday morning, carry his books, and polish his and other boy's shoes.

The second auction, held before school on Thursday, turned out to be the most productive sale. Diane Shiver was sold to Wayne Williamson. Diane Sheahan to Bruce Camplin, Wilma Kirchman to Terry Lee, and Judy Doll to Danny Adams. Marilyn Stokes, sold to Jack Waters, had to carry his books, drive him around all day, and worst of all, wash his jeep thoroughly inside and out. Barbara Williams had to chauffeur Ray Edison before school and then take him to work after school.

Alan Lebow's slave, Kathryn Smith, had to escort him to all of his classes, drive him everywhere, cook his breakfast, wash his car, and clean the schoolyard of all gum wrappers and paper.

Teachers not to be out done also took advantage of the Slave Day to make choice selections from the FTA girls. Mrs. Melnick took Clory Fiquizabal to scrub her floor while Mrs. Trego bid for Janet W. and Janet had to iron clothes until sundown. Jane Zumpt, bought by Mr. Brown-

Mustangs Edge Rams

The High School Ram's faculty lost to the Jr. High Mustangs' faculty by a mere 2 points in an action packed basketball game Monday night, Feb. 3, in the BGHS gym.

The first minutes of the game were solely the Mustang's and it looked as though it was going to be a run away. But the determined Rams began fighting back in the second half to close the gap.

It was tough and go with Rams ahead many times. But the Mustangs, led by DeWight the Ward (Coach Ward) Slick Chandler (Mr. Chandler) and Liver Pills (Corder (Coach Corder), came back to edge the Rams 78-76.

The leading scorer for the Mustangs was DeWight the Ward with a whopping 32 points, followed by Slick Chandler with 25. The Ram's high point man was Terrible Luke (Coach Luke) and Twinkleton Tullio (Mr. Tullio) was close behind with 18.

Many of the teachers seemed tired at the end of the game and Rabbit Rasco (Mr. Rasco) was heard to call for a wheelchair to help him.

Students Of The Week

GEORGE RICHARDSON

LINDA SIDES

The titles "Mr. Freshman of 1964" and "Most Attractive Senior Boy" attest to the popularity of George Summers Richardson. Other honors were representing his class by riding on their freshman float.

Elective offices which he holds are vice-president of the Interact Club and vice-president of the Senior Class. George plans to attend Palm Beach Junior College where he wants to begin work in engineering. His older brother Jimmy also started his college days at PBJC. Doug, his younger brother, is a sophomore and is following in George's active footsteps.

George's favorite subject is hand. He has been a band member for several years and plays the drums. His outside hobbies and interests include hunting and skiing. When the summer rolls around, he can be found at the lake on a pair of skis. During hunting season he goes to the woods almost every weekend.

George can sometimes be seen driving around the scene in a "jeep convertible," as he calls it; but he hopes to some day, own a Corvette. His favorite pastime is watching TV. "You better believe it" it is his most used expression. Born in Memphis, Tennessee, George has lived many other places before coming to Belle Glade, some of which are Corpus Christi, Texas, and Miami.

Rubin Exhibit At Norton Gallery

Reuben Rubin is recognized throughout the world as Israel's foremost painter. A special exhibition of his work at the Norton Gallery will open with a members preview and party Friday, February 10, 5 to 7 p. m., and will be open to the public from February 11 through March 12. Rubin will attend the opening.

More than any other painter, Rubin has epitomized the growth of modern Israel, from the rugged early days of the pioneers to the confidence and consolidation of the present. The New York Times said in reviewing his New York exhibition, "His eloquently lyrical paintings of Israel's landscapes, traditions, and inhabitants reflect the fantasy and color of that country. This gifted artist can justly be considered the painter laureate of Israel."

Student Of The Week

The newspaper staff has chosen Willie Lee Howard as student of the week. Willie is a proud member of the sophomore class and president of his homeroom class. He has maintained a 'B' average in all of his studies and takes his work seriously. Because of his interest and ability to master mathematical problems he hopes to become a mathematician or an engineer. After he finishes high school Willie plans to attend Palm Beach Jr. College. He hopes to further his education at Tuskegee Institute and possibly receive his masters degree in mechanical engineering.

When asked about his philosophy of life, he said, "Life is like a train with many passengers. Some know where they're going, some are lost and some are just there." Willie resides at 409 South West Avenue F with his guardians, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Crittenden. His hobbies are studying, softball, basketball, football and girls.

We'd ask you to compare it... but with what?

Comparing a Cadillac has always been a problem, for the car has long been clearly in a class of its own. In 1967, the challenge is even greater... because Cadillac has never before asserted its leadership so convincingly.

Start with beauty. Cast about for a luxury car contender that can list such styling advancements as Cadillac's dramatic new roof line, its forward-sweeping front design and its graceful and flowing side contours. Then consider that there are eleven exciting examples of this kind of Cadillac beauty... as well as the totally new Eldorado, the world's finest personal car!

Consider also the incomparable newness of Cadillac's beautiful interiors and their unexcelled safety and convenience. There are passenger guard door locks, a hazard warning system, a dual circuit braking system, latches that hold folding front seats securely in place and dozens of other safety features.

And, of course, there's performance. There's nothing else smoother than Cadillac's V-8 power; nothing else easier than Cadillac's improved variable ratio power steering; nothing else surer or steadier on the highway.

Visit your authorized dealer and measure Cadillac against your own motoring requirements. It's the only valid comparison test for the Standard of the World.
